

Can-Am Geomatics Services

Pointing you in the right direction

Can-Am specializes in providing services to the energy sector including oil & gas, oil sands, and utilities clients. All surveys are completed utilizing the most advanced technologies available, resulting in efficient and cost effective solutions for our clients.

Well Sites

- Well sites and access road surveys
- Layout and survey of multi-pad leases
- As-built site plans for existing facilities

Pipelines

- Route planning and selection
- Cadastral (Legal) Right-of-Way surveys
- Engineering and crossing surveys
- Underground facility location and as-built data collection

Oilsands

- Oilsands exploration core hole programs
- LiDAR planning meetings
- OSE and CPP Mapping and applications
- Individual Core Hole Plans (ICP)
- Dispositions Plans

Pipeline Integrity

- Underground facility location
- As-built survey data & Weld Mapping
- Maintenance of geo-referenced as-built databases

Power & Utility

- Right-of-Way surveys
- Transmission tower/power pole layout
- Power line crossing details

Construction Services

Can-Am's survey services extend all aspects of oilfield construction. This includes compressor sites, gas plants, upgrader facilities, meter stations and valve sites. Can-Am Geomatics offers a range of construction services to the energy industry including:

- Line Locating
- Pile Layout
- Civil grade staking
- Engineering design layout
- As-built data collection
- GIS/Mapping products

Engineering Surveys

Utilizing the most recent technologies available, our team brings expertise to major facility or civil projects including:

- Survey Control Networks
- Preliminary site plans and terrain models
- Construction design layout
- Volumetric and final as-built data collection
- Mapping and GIS services

FOLLOW
US ON

Can-Am Geomatics Corp.

@CanAm_Geomatics

Please contact us for more information!